

COMMERCIAL TRANSACTIONS

Our firm provides advice and legal documents for a variety of business needs. If you are starting a new business, buying a business, selling a business or growing a business, we can help.

You may need guidance regarding a Corporation or Limited Liability Company, or a contract for the sale and purchase of business assets.

Advice and agreements for employment and other business matters are also available.

We provide a variety of contracts and legal counsel regarding business transactions, plus the representation in breach of contract actions and other related civil matters.

If you have need of any of these services, our firm is available to help you.
